The Republicans Carry Every Northern State with the Exception of Conn. and New Jersey.

Minnesota Sustains Her Reputation And Rolls Up the Usual Majority.

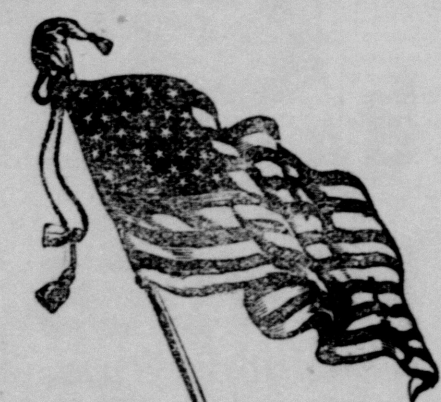

Merriam Elected Governor by 20,000.

DEATH TO THE BANDANA.

The Stars and Stripes Still Float—The Country's Safe.

Minnesota Elects Five Republican Congressmen.

Fleming, Flynn and Dunn Elected to the Legislature by an Overwhelming Majority.

Tuesday's victory was a splendid victory, not only for the republican party but also for the country. With it the one great and important question of the republican system of protection to American industries is forever settled. With but one exception against free trade. The North is a progressive country. We are a prosperous country, and her people know that this prosperity is due wholly to that system which keeps the foreign manufacturer and the products of foreign countries out of our markets. They know that our wage-earners cannot compete with the cheap labor of Europe. And the people can always be trusted upon such vital questions. That day has passed and gone forever when the demagogue can lead them. Especially is this true of the toilers, the laborers of this country. They, too, are a reading, thinking people. They, too, know what free trade means for them. On Tuesday all calumny came together and cast their ballots and we hail the verdict as the grandest political and industrial victory of modern times. From all over the North comes the glorious news that the people of this free North have had enough of President Cleveland and his party, and that the only party that can be trusted is the grand old party of right principles. Nor need any fool cast down over this result—it is the salvation of America. From Maine to California every Northern state, except New Jersey, has flung its ballot for that magnificent soldier-statesman—General Harrison—and for that prince of philanthropists—Levi P. Morton. Not only have these men been elected but both houses of congress are strongly republican. We have swept the country clean. In our own state Mr. Merriam is elected by an unlooked for majority. Every republican congressman is elected by large majorities. Many legislative districts, heretofore democratic, have elected republican representatives. In this district Messrs. Dunn, Fleming and Flynn are elected by unprecedented majorities. This was due largely to the popularity of Mr. Dunn and Mr. Fleming, and if any of the many successful candidates have reason to feel proud of the result, they are Dunn and Fleming. Mr. Crockett will go to congress with a large majority. In the county of Crow Wing the republican party covered itself all over with glory. She proved herself as true as steel. No accusations of disloyalty can ever be brought against her on account of her conduct in the election. She outdid herself. Her people have shown that they were alive to the best interests of the county and state. Her majorities prove this, and we point to them with pride. Let the eagle scream!

The Next Congress

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8.—There is a tremendous sensation here and over the river over a discovery which, it is claimed, defeats Carlisle by nearly 1,000 votes. The law directs that all ballots be plain, with no distinguishing mark. The Carlisle ballots in Campbell and Kenton counties were printed in long perforated strips, and were carelessly torn up. Carlisle has engaged counsel. The election board is republican. They protested many votes, and if these are thrown out he is defeated. If not thrown out the case will be carried to congress.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—The great question is as to the complexion of the next house, and the completed returns today are necessary to decide the claims of either party to the control of the next house. The World this morning says the present outlook is that the democrats will retain a majority of at least 10 representatives. The Sun says that there is a possibility of a republican majority, while the Tribune and Press claim a republican majority of from 12 to 20. West Virginia is hardly more than half heard from, but the latest indication confirms the republican hopes.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—At the republican headquarters this afternoon Committee Chairman C. Dudley said the republicans placed Harrison's plurality in New York state at 15,720, in California 8,000, in Illinois 25,000 and in Wisconsin 21,000. The republicans, he said, also claim West Virginia and Michigan.

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—Chairman Brice of the democratic national executive committee, concedes the election of Gen. Harrison. Capt. McClellan, chairman of the campaign committee, was the only member of the national committee at headquarters this morning, and he made the authoritative announcement of Chairman Brice's concession of a republican victory.

The Washington Post predicts Reed, of Maine, will be the speaker of the next house. It predicts that New will be secretary of the treasury, Alger secretary of war, Goff secretary of navy, and Blaine secretary of state, if he desires that position. Michener, Gen. Harrison's partner, will be attorney general; Miller, of New York, secretary of the interior and Mahone, postmaster general.

WILMINGTON, Del., Nov. 8.—The latest indications are that Delaware may give the republican state legislature a majority.

Free Trade's Black Eye. When Grover Cleveland and the Southern democracy challenged American labor to battle they little thought what the result would be. The battle was fought and won, and the glory is due to the American laboring men. The victory is one of the most glorious in the annals of history, and another generation of undisturbed protection and republican supremacy will be the result. Rebels and traitors free-traders are forever laid upon the shelf where the dust of generations will gather round their forms undisturbed. The loyal voters of these great United States can feel elated at the result. Every northern state with the exception of New Jersey and Connecticut have been carried by large majorities and great inroads have been made in the solid Southern vote. This has been accomplished in the face of coercion, use of large sums of money and the manipulation of the federal patronage. The South, as well as the North, will be benefitted by this liberation from misrule which for four years has been forced upon them. Under protection tariff laws the industries of our Southern sister states which are just beginning to show signs of activity will thrive and flourish. They have more to be thankful for than the Northern states, such as this thing is possible.

Free trade has received a black eye, such as it will never recover from. Peace be to its ashes. The prohibition party scarcely held its own in Minnesota in comparison with 1886 and considering the increase in population this is a decided loss. The dems and prohs can seek some secluded nook and mourn in silent solitude over their defeat.

This is Peter Mertz' Rooster. Look at Him.

The Judgment Matter. Up to the time of going to press from facts and figures at hand, it is evident that Judge Sleeper is elected by a majority of from fifty to seventy-five. The fact of the election being so close will almost necessitate the official count to satisfy all parties. With a fair count of honest votes in Itasca and Aitkin counties Judge Sleeper's majority will be 250 at least if not 300, but the people in this section know what to expect from Itasca from former experiences. This much is certain, however, that if there is such a thing as meting out justice to any person who has been guilty of perpetrating fraud in the matter of obtaining ballots in that Itasca wilderness it will be done. We do not charge fraud upon anyone yet, but there are things which would lead a suspicious mind to imagine some irregular and illegal proceedings.

HARRISON! PRESIDENT HARRISON!! PRESIDENT BENJAMIN HARRISON!!! The solid south is broken. 'Twas a glorious victory. Have you heard from New York? ELECTION RETURNS ON SECOND PAGE. WEST VIRGINIA HAS fallen into line. DAN. LAMONT'S occupation is gone. CROW WING democracy is at a discount. MERRIAM'S majority in the state is over 23,000. WHERE WAS GROVER when the returns came in? JONATHAN DONNELLY was defeated for the legislature. The republicans captured nearly thirty representative districts on Tuesday. FOUR years of democratic mismanagement and misrule was enough for the most fastidious. Mr. Koop has not burned his post-office outfit yet, but we understand he is thinking seriously of it. The republicans carried every ward in the city. Don't howl about Brainerd being a democratic city hereafter.

Yes, Bro. Stivers, the legislative ticket ran "about even" with the party strength and actually 100 ahead of it in the county. The prohibition vote in Crow Wing county failed to reach 300 as was claimed it would. Eighty-five was the high water mark. The next legislature of Minnesota will be composed of 90 republican, nine democratic, two alliance men, and two independents. A most peculiar feature is the large number of democrats who claim to have voted for Harrison since they heard from New York. CANNFIELD's estimate to the Globe that Crow Wing county would give the democratic ticket 300 majority was just a trifle over estimated. The assertion of a certain paper that W. A. Fleming was not the choice of the republicans at the polls on Tuesday. The Verndale journal editor's attention is called to Judge Sleeper's Crow Wing county vote. Of course Bro. McMillan is a poor man and we excuse him on these grounds.

The Minneapolis Tribune was received here on Wednesday morning at 8:15 a. m. with the news of Harrison's election, six hours ahead of all competitors. The enterprise of a newspaper with such energy and enterprise should and does receive a hearty support in all parts of the northwest. The Tribune had ten special trains which carried its special edition to all parts of the country.

BRO. STIVERS is studiously reviewing his works on "Political Economy" these days. We expected to see Mr. Stivers defeated, but hardly expected to see him shelved by such a majority. There is one good trait about the "Friar," however, and that is the good grace with which he takes his defeat year after year, and still continues to imagine that the public yearns to hear his voice in legislative halls. Mr. Stivers stood a better chance of election than any of his unfortunate companions in the race, but this was a republican year and it was impossible to allow even one democrat to go to the legislature from the 39th district.

A JAUNT IN PERSIA.

Preparations Necessary for a Mountaineering Trip in the Shah's Dominions.

This is the way we were obliged to prepare for the trip in order to reach our destination. It was essential that we should take with us tents, bedding, crockery and sufficient animals to carry ourselves, the servants and the outfit. This required the employment of much talking and of occasional thrashing when the insolence of the chivars, or muleteer, interfered with the clenching of a bargain. After several days of preparation all seemed ready for the start. One curious circumstance about the journey, however, was the fact that we were obliged to journey by night. The great heat makes it impossible to travel in Persia in the middle of the day during the greater part of the year. Our departure was therefore so timed that we could have the benefit of the full moon. Once on the road, and winding through narrow lanes at a moderate walk, we were able to observe what an imposing procession we made. At the head rode the ghildar, or eunuch, mounted on a white Shizee Arab stallion. Two gentlemen followed, and next to them came several ladies on donkeys. The tachtravan was next in order, carrying the invalid of the party. This is a curious vehicle peculiar to Persia and Turkey. It is a covered litter borne between two mules, and contains sliding doors and windows. It is rendered reasonably comfortable by cushions on which a person can lie at full length. The tachtravan of the wealthy is sometimes handsomely decorated, and mention is made of Kings of Persia using it many centuries ago. But generally this conveyance is more heavily constructed than is necessary, owing to the difficulty of finding wood which is at once light and strong in Persia. The march of a tachtravan is necessarily tediously slow, but it is announced for a long distance by the strings of jangling bells carried by the gaily-decorated mules, which do not, however, seem to appreciate the wealth and weight of ornament lavished upon them. On level roads the tachtravan is a real luxury; but when there is a steep ascent or descent combined with bad roads, this form of locomotion is not only very trying to the mules, but is also a severe strain on the rider, both on account of the exertion required in preserving his position and the nervous strain caused by watching the frequent peril of being hurled over a precipice. At the head of the leading mule marched stately Arab, Abdullah Ibn Hassan. His gait was of a prince; he was six feet in height, sparely built and perfectly erect. A camel-hair tunic reached to the ankles. His head was adorned with a striped mantle bound around the forehead with a white cord. His swarthy features were haggard but yet handsome, and the dark eyes which flashed from under cavernous brows were of a proud and romantic melancholy, deepening into a glow of injured pride tinged with sadness when he was refused a backseater, as if he would reproach you for having disappointed him. He had not reposed in your elevated generosity. What standard is to an army was this son of the desert to our humbler train. He gave to it such a bearing that he seemed to be the chief personage in the party. Tuesday's victory was a splendid victory, not only for the republican party but also for the country. With it the one great and important question of the republican system of protection to American industries is forever settled. With but one exception every Northern state has pronounced against free trade. The North is a progressive country. We are a prosperous country, and her people know that this prosperity is due wholly to that system which keeps the foreign manufacturer and the products of foreign countries out of our markets.

They know that our wage-earners cannot compete with the cheap labor of Europe. And the people can always be trusted upon such vital questions. That day has passed and gone forever when the demagogue could lead them. Especially is this true of the toilers, the laborers of this country. They, too, are a reading, thinking people. They, too, know what free trade means for them. On Tuesday all classes came together and cast their ballots and we hail the victorious and glorious victory of modern industry over the old and outworn principles. Nor need any feel cast down over this result--it is the salvation of America. From Maine to California every Northern state, except New Jersey, has flung its ballot for that magnificent soldier-state-man--General Harrison--and for that prince of philanthropists--Levi P.

Morton. Not only have these men been elected but both houses of congress are strongly republican. We have swept the country clean. In our own state Mr. Merriam is elected by an unlooked for majority. Every republican congressman is elected by large majorities. Many legislative districts, heretofore democratic, have elected republican representatives.

In this district Messrs. Dunn, Fleming and Flynn are elected by unexpected majorities. This was due largely to the popularity of Mr. Dunn and Mr. Fleming, and if any of the many successful candidates have reason to feel proud of the result, they are Dunn and Fleming. Mr. Con-stock will go to congress with a large majority. In the county of Crow Wing the republican party covered itself all over with glory. She proved herself as true as steel. No accusations of disloyalty can ever be brought against her on account of her conduct in the election. She outdid herself.

Her people have shown that they were alive to the best interests of the county and state. Her majorities prove this, and we point to them with pride. Let the eagle scream!

The Next Congress

CINCINNATI, Nov. 8--There is a tremendous sensation here and over the river over a discovery which, it is claimed, defeats Carlisle by nearly 1,000 votes. The law directs that all ballots be plain, with no distinguishing mark. The Carlisle ballots in Campbell and Kenton counties were printed in long perforated strips, and were carefully torn up. Carlisle has engaged counsel. The election board is republican. They protested many votes, and if these are thrown out he is defeated. If not thrown out the case will be carried to congress.

New York, Nov. 8--The great question is as to the complexion of the next house, and the completed returns today are necessary to decide the claims of either party to the control of the next house. The World this morning says the present outlook is that the democrats will retain a majority of at least 10 representatives.

The Sun says that there is a possibility of a republican majority, while the Tribune and Press claim a republican majority of from 12 to 20. West Virginia is hardly more than half heard from, but the latest indication confirms the republican hopes.

New York, Nov. 8--At the republican headquarters this afternoon

Committee Chairman C. Dudley said the republicans placed Harrison's plurality in New York state at 15,720, in California 8,000, in Illinois 25,000 and in Wisconsin 21,000. The republicans he said, also claim West Virginia and Virginia.

New York, Nov. 8--Chairman Brice of the democratic national executive committee, concedes the election of Gen. Harrison. Capt. McClellan, chairman of the campaign committee, was the only member of the national committee at headquarters this morning, and he made the authoritative announcement of Chairman Brice's concession of a republican victory.

The Washington Post predicts

Reed, of Maine, will be the speaker of the next house. It predicts that

New will be secretary of the treasury,

Alger secretary of war, Goff secretary of navy, and Blaine secretary of state, if he desires that position. Michener, Gen. Harrison's partner, will be attorney general; Miller, of New York, secretary of the interior and Mahone, postmaster general.

Wilmington, Del., Nov. 8--The latest indications are that Delaware may give the republican state legislature a majority.

Free Trade's Black Eye.

When Grover Cleveland and the Southern democracy challenged American labor to battle they little thought what the result would be. The battle was fought and won, and the glory is due to the American laboring man.

The victory is one of the most glorious in the annals of history, and another generation of undisturbed protection and republican supremacy will be the result. Rebelious and traitorous free-traders are forever laid upon the shelf where the dust of generations will gather round their forms undisturbed.

The loyal voters of these great United States can but feel elated at the result. Every northern state with the exception of New Jersey and Connecticut have been carried by large majorities and great inroads have been made in the solid Southern vote. This has been accomplished in the face of coercion, use of large sums of money and the manipulation of the federal patronage. The South, as well as the North, will be benefited by this liberation from misrule which for four years has been forced upon them. Under protection tariff laws the industries of our Southern sister states which are just beginning to show signs of activity will thrive and flourish. They have more to be thankful for than the Northern states, if such a thing is possible.

Free trade has received a black eye, such as it will never recover from.

Peace be to its ashes.

The prohibition party scarcely held its own in Minnesota in comparison with 1886 and considering the increase in population this is a decided loss.

The dems and prohibs can seek some secluded nook and mourn in silent solitude over their defeat.

The Judgship Matter.

Up to the time of going to press from facts and figures at hand, it is evident that Judge Sleeper is elected by a majority of from fifty to seventy-
